THAT PENDULUM...

IT DOES NOT SEEM so very long ago since the statements of the world were worried about food supplies. During the early thirties when thousands and thousands of lives were actually being snuffed in the Atlantic, and goodness only knows how many young pigs were being killed off in Denmark, it seemed the height of folly to even suggest that some day the opposite conditions would prevail. Rapid communication and transportation, people said, would prevent anything resembling world famine, and anyway, due to modern methods of agriculture, we had passed from an age of scarcity to an age of plenty!

But here we are, ten or fifteen years later, reading of solemn warnings of a rapidly impending world food famine. Speaking at one of the sessions of the United Nations Organization in London recently, the British Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin gave warning that one billion people face the danger of starvation during the next few years, and declared: "We are still not in a position to defeat famine, and Edward R. Stettinius called on the survival and welfare of men, women and children. The truth is that most parts of the world right now have grave food shortages with the Western Hemisphere being the favored spot and North America, which is Canada is a part, being the favored portion of the Western Hemisphere."

Whether world food shortage would have come anyway, regardless of whether there had been a world war or not, it is of course, impossible to say. Many people lay the blame of world food shortage directly to the war and those, no doubt, are in the majority, but there are others who believe that a food shortage would have occurred even without war and security periods are inevitable, and while no doubt the war was a direct contributing factor, the natural ebb and flow of human affairs would have brought along some form of food worries. But regardless of what incident has brought it upon us, it is to the cause, a world food shortage is now here, and contrary to general belief, it could exist even though we are living in a very fertile area.

The circulation of this paper is chiefly among those whose life work it is to sow and reap. Even though they may have been told before that they are "the salt of the earth," surely now, nothing is needed to emphasize the statement. It goes without saying that Canadian farmers will do all they can to lessen the misery caused by gnawing hunger and will plant and labor through the growing season even more than usual, trusting that growing conditions will produce greater than usual results. However, we can, dry or otherwise prepare for future use, all the food possible, remembering that even in this fertile country, if the crop preserve shelves are empty in October, it is a long time to the next harvest.

SOIL FERTILITY...

WE RECENTLY HAD THE privilege of listening to an address on "Soil Fertility" by Dr. Newton of the University of Alberta. The speaker went into the subject very exhaustively, commencing with the actual laying down of the soil during the glacial period and continued on to showing pictures of methods used in the past and analyzing soils in different areas. Contrary to popular belief, university lecturers do have a sense of humor. After Dr. Newton had been speaking for about an hour, he asked how much more time he had, and Mr. Moisey replied, "an hour." Dr. Newton smiled pleasantly and said, "I hardly think the audience will stand for it." He received much applause at the conclusion of his address.

A lecture on Soil Fertility by Dr. Bowser is to be given at the forthcoming agricultural fair set for to be held at Tofield on March 13th.

R.C.M.P. MOVE...

WITH THE TRANSFERRING of the R.C.M.P. detachment from Tofield to Rydal, a chapter in Tofield's history has been closed. The detachment has been in Tofield for many years, since 1900 we believe, and it is with considerable regret Tofielders will say farewell to it. The housing shortage is responsible, the owners requiring the house recently occupied by the police and there were no others available. At Rydal Mr. Kordich and family moved back into the hotel from their new and well appointed home to make room for the detachment to be stationed there.

Big Enough

The world isn't big enough for a quarter of its people to be destitute while the other three-quarters live in the comfort, ease, and well-being of a modern society.

And making money.

That's the reason in Europe could do the longer or poorer for lack of it. It's not that we are so much about them, nor our consciences don't bother us.

But what they have done. Plans and rules have sprung up together with the money. It's like the neighbors to Europe who have the money and the money is a heavy freight away.

It takes time to get the money. It takes time to get it a few years ago to your neighbor in the next town. It takes time to get it.

REMEMBERANCE DAY

As far back as recorded history goes, men read of wars between nations and were one to delay back into the realities of the past it would be found that there were very few periods in which peace was complete the world over. What quality, characteristic or passion possesses that this situation should exist it is impossible to say, but it does seem strange that while the international peace is something that has always been desired, international war has been the rule rather than the exception. We all know that in a bygone age, the race almost always went to the sword and the sword to the strong, internationally and otherwise, but in the last two thousand years at least, with the Prince of Peace mankind's ideal of human behavior, our international thoughts have many of us to believe that war has no place in a world lived in by people in the way that the Creator intended them to live. What error of thinking and doing there is, is an error of mankind and an error that could with proper thought and endeavor be corrected. We all hope that it will be corrected and many believe right now, that with the example of an international conflict, nations on a scale never before reached, that it will be international war may become a reality and that there can be no such thing as a victory or defeat, only a slaughter, destruction, and with the hope of victory, mankind will be left with a war more vicious than any that has ever been known to the world.

But no matter what the world teaches us or what the future holds in store, there is one thing certain and that is, we should not and must not forget. This is the lesson of the world, that we should not and must not forget. This is the lesson of the world, that we should not and must not forget. This is the lesson of the world, that we should not and must not forget.

On Monday Canadians everywhere will pay homage to the memory of those who died so that all mankind might have a better world in which to live. If you had asked a great many of them what they were fighting for, they would have become inarticulate. They had not recognized all the fine points of right and wrong connected with the conflict, they might not even have been impressed with the picture of Churchill, Roosevelt and Stalin in solemn conference, certain there would be few of them who would have believed that every word and action was on the enemy's side or that there was no wrong on their side. They would have believed that every word and action was on the enemy's side or that there was no wrong on their side. They would have believed that every word and action was on the enemy's side or that there was no wrong on their side.

Calgary Power Co. Ltd.

Dear Sir:

The shortage of materials for transmission is a serious problem. We are doing our best to get new lines in as soon as possible. We are doing our best to get new lines in as soon as possible. We are doing our best to get new lines in as soon as possible.

A Pole Line Equipment Co.

This kind of mail explains the delays in new service connections—
even though we are now and have been making service connections at a more rapid pace than we did before the war. Equipment is even harder to get now than during the war. We have not been able to keep up with our orders for new connections, and new transmission line construction is also being delayed. We are doing all we can and thank you for your patience.

Really, Yours,
Pole Line Equipment Co.

What About Rising Prices?

Steadily advancing prices on most commodities seem unavoidable. In our opinion, the most successful manner of combating this trend is to buy quality. High quality goods, possibly not so rapidly, but they will be long lasting and of known value and to raise prices only when forced to do so by sharp advances on imports and shipments. Fortunately we are now receiving increased quantities from the best sources.

BIG TOURIST SEASON AHEAD!

The Thompsons are busy as bees, getting their place in shape for the tourist season. This year, with three more cabins, electricity and a modernized kitchen, they hope to do even better than before.

They were able to make these additions because last fall Mr. Thompson drove to town to see his bank manager. He knew about the nice little business the Thompsons had built up; a bank loan was quickly arranged.

Now the Thompsons can handle more tourists and increase their income. At the same time Canada will benefit from the extra tourist dollars they take in.

THIS IS ONE INSTANCE of how Canada's tourist industry is growing. It is one of the many ways in which Canada is becoming a more attractive place to visit.

If you can rise or live, while all the family
Sleep, asleep, and leave it all to you,
And still can maintain a cheerful patience,
Nor can thine heart be made very unkind too;
If you can wait for him to still thy smiling,
Nor woe of the loved face, criticize,
Or hot or tired don't give way to frowning
Because the bread you eat has failed to rise,
If you can work and not make work your master,
And still can dream and always play the game,
If you can see your meanness, suffer alone,
And sweep them up, nor speak one word of blame,
If you can bear the world's unpolished
Tracked up to muds—show on careless face,
And see your bride a face and chin broken
And yet, when asked for reasons, can be sweet,
If you can hang your line with all your washing,
And then go on and find it in the dirt,

And do not look too sour, or feel too hurt;
If you can give and take, you'll never hurt.
Who waste your time, not soon away are gone,
And hurry to replace these idle moments,
And from success to give you more content.
If you can wait on rivals and keep your temper,
And do not feel too cross or feel too vain,
If you can hurry when your foot is weary,
You will not have to wait long to be again;
If you can fill each unturning moment,
With sixty seconds worth of love life,
You'll be a good success in the end,
And what is more, you'll make a farmer's wife.

New Years Resolution

We the residents of Tofield and surrounding district have resolved to make all motorists in our own district.

Although it may be possible to get some things cheaper at some other town or city or mail order house we also realize that they contribute nothing toward the district either in taxes or any other community activity.

We feel that our own local merchants are a real asset to the welfare of the district and are worthy of our support.

We hereby resolve to buy all our groceries from our local merchants, all our groceries and oils from our local meat and all hardware and building supplies from—

What is THE BEST THING I CAN DO with my WAR SAVINGS CERTIFICATES?

Make those WARTIME SAVINGS your PEACETIME BACKLOG... this easy way

Now that your War Savings Certificates are beginning to pay off, why not keep this backlog of money in your hands. Use this money to create a "Fund for the Future"—a reserve fund in time of opportunity, a ready resource in time of need.

Here's a way to ensure that your money will be always ready to help you through your life. Endorse and mail your savings certificates, as described on the back, to Ottawa... then, when you receive your cheque, plan it is a 2 of M Savings Account.

Under this arrangement, there's no need for you to go to the front and bother of endorsing each individual certificate—the Bank will attend to this for you.

You'll find this service will save you time, trouble and worry. And while your Savings Account is growing—your War Savings Certificates will be making money for you.

So, if you have a savings certificate with you, write today to get a special one for you.

GENERAL RULES FOR TREATMENT OF FRACTURES

1. Attend to the fracture on the spot. No matter how crowded the surroundings, or how short the distance to a more convenient or comfortable place, no attempt must be made to move the patient until the limb is secured in a position of rest.

The receipt of the physician in the treatment of fractures is not a necessary to set the fracture correctly, but to maintain the broken ends in a fixed position so that they shall not cause further injury to the tissues around them.
5. Apply splints, bandages and slings when necessary. The splints must be firm, and long enough to keep the joints immediately above and below the fracture of bone at rest. Apply with the body firmly in a line, so that the limb is in a straight line. The splints must be applied in a firm and wide enough. When the limb is in a straight line, the upper limb may be fixed in various ways to it. The lower limb may be fixed in various ways to it. The upper limb may be fixed in various ways to it. It was the writer's good fortune to be associated with Howard Watson for many years as an executive with this newspaper. As for myself, I regretted seeing him leave the publishing business as I felt he was a "natural" in our game. With his promotional mind, organizing ability and personality I am confident he will prove a great asset to the Toledo community and is certain to meet with much success in his new venture.

The Best banking system

CANADA has a banking system which, for efficiency and dependability, is unsurpassed in the world. Committed, flexible, adaptable to the changing needs of the country, it serves Canada's producers, her industries, her traders—and it serves your personal needs, too.

No customer has to fear for the privacy of his regular banking transactions. This privacy is completely free of political pressures or considerations—it is rooted in Canadian banking practice and tradition.

Contrast this Canadian way with conditions in lands where freedom is denied—where every bank is a political tool, every banker a State official. This Canadian way of banking, proposed by Senators here, would mean the Market's foreign pattern on you.

"It's Pool Elevators This Year"

The Alberta Wheat Pool is celebrating its 25th anniversary. The rallying cry is "Make this Year of our Pool Elevator Year."

Many of the men who participated in the formation of the Alberta Wheat Pool are no longer engaged in farming. The younger generation of farmers may not be so keenly aware of the pressure of circumstances which brought about the Alberta Wheat Pool's formation. Nevertheless, they should realize that the Wheat Pool has been a tower of strength to Alberta agriculture.

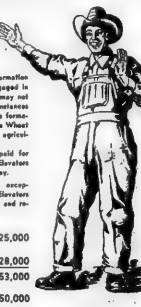

Alberta farmers have, over the years, paid for many an elaborate system, but Alberta Pool Elevators is the only one owned by Alberta farmers, today.

Besides providing grain producers with exceptional service and protection, Alberta Pool Elevators has, over the years, paid patronage dividends and returned reserves as follows:

Patronage dividends paid in cash $3,725,000
Patronage dividends paid in reserves $3,028,000
Purchases of reserves $6,753,000
from members $4,450,000

This record shows what can be done through co-operative effort. This year deliver your grain to—

Garage Gives Best Service

Truck owners sometimes are inclined to think local garage operator cannot do as good a job as city garages. They just off and deliver service till they make another semi-annual trip to large city. The majority of garage owners have staff factory trained mechanics and technicians in general rule can give you better servicing.

When it comes to this local garage man stands behind his work and all he will make him adjustments on day job or charge for your car. He has large stocks of parts, and your customer. He does jobs on time and most first of all he submits to your boss, who is his superior. This means that the local garage man doing that well worth phrase.

ALBERTA WHEAT POOL'S Silver Anniversary

"THREE OF US POOL COUNTRY ELEVATORS"

The Alberta Wheat Pool started in business on October 19, 1923. Its first office was staffed with 18 employees, and furnished with second-hand equipment.

Today the Alberta Wheat Pool is the largest Alberta business. Its assets include 622 country elevators and two terminals with a total grain capacity of 17,959,000 bushels.

The Alberta Wheat Pool has paid progressive dividends, over the years, to a total of $4,643,915.

Alberta Pool Elevators has provided excellent service to farmers and has been a constant source of revenue for the province. The system has handled as much as $2,000,000 worth of grain in a single year.

All this, and many other accomplishments, have been achieved by the Wheat Pool members, who have rendered such loyal and devoted service to their own organization over a quarter of a century.

Nothing can take the place of this former-owned co-operative in providing today the preservation of hard-earned rights and privileges for the grain producers of this province.

"Make this year a Pool devotee year."
